Welcome to the 2022-23 season of the Havant Orchestras!

If you haven't recently experienced the thrill of attending a live orchestral concert with your friends and neighbours, here is your chance!

The two Havant Orchestras enable talented local players to get together to create high quality performances for the local community at affordable prices, working with outstanding soloists, including familiar local musicians, up-and-coming new talent and established international performers.

Havant Symphony Orchestra (HSO) performs at Oaklands Catholic School in Waterlooville, an excellent venue for the power of a full symphony orchestra.

Oaklands School Hall

This season's HSO programme is a little different, aiming to be more attractive for potential new audience members after the disruption of recent years.

The winter concert includes the famous Bruch Violin Concerto No. 1 and the spring concert the even more famous Grieg Piano Concerto, and both are in the afternoon rather than the evening. Also, the winter and summer concerts both include a selection of popular shorter works instead of a traditional symphony.

Havant Chamber Orchestra (HCO) will be continuing to perform at Holy Trinity Church on West Street, Fareham, in order to remain convenient for local audience members after the closure of Ferneham Hall.

Their first concert is dedicated to HCO's memories of Brian Howells, HCO leader from 1997 to 2020, as a celebration of his huge contribution to the orchestra, sadly cut short by Covid-19 in April 2020. The selected works are for strings or for small classical orchestra, and feature young soloists Laura Rickard (previously leader of Hampshire County Youth Orchestra) and Elliott Perks, in Mozart's Sinfonia Concertante for violin and viola.

Robin Browning
Musical Director, HCO

The February concert features the return of outstanding horn player Ben Goldscheider in the Strauss Horn Concerto No. 1. Ben previously performed with HSO in 2019.

The May concert is a presentation by Robin Browning with HCO exploring Beethoven's "Pastoral" Symphony, as originally scheduled for the "Beethoven 250" celebrations in 2020.

Jonathan Butcher
Musical Director, HSO

Seating plan for Holy Trinity Church

There are side aisles between seats 5/6 and 15/16. Within each row, seats 1 and 20 are unused to leave more space. Seats 6 and 15 in some rows (A, D, E, H, I, L) are unavailable because they are occupied by or positioned behind narrow pillars.

The seats in the church are wooden pews, so we suggest taking a cushion for comfort.

Seating plan for Oaklands School

Seat numbers read from right to left. Within each row of the tiered seating, to provide more space, seat numbers 1, 13, 20 and 32 are not used.

Section Z is on the flat but has steps down to it. Disabled seating on the balcony with flat access is limited. Please indicate if required.
